

Government
(revised 2008)

Chapter	Unit	Concepts	State goals
1	Principles of Government	1.Origins of government	14a,14b,14c,14d,14e,14f
		2.Forms of government
		3.Basic concepts of democracy
		4.Economic systems
5	Political Parties	1.Parties:what they do	14a, 14b,14c,14d,14f
		2.The two party system
		3.Party history
		4.Minor parties
		5.Conservatives and liberals
10	Congress	1.The national legislature	14a,14b,14c,14d,14f
		2.House of Representatives
		3.Senate
		4.Members of Congress
13	The Presidency	1.President's job description	14a,14b,14c,14d,14e,14f
		2.Succession & the Vice President	14f
		3.Presidential selection
		4.Presidential nominations
		5.The election
19	First Amendment Freedoms	1.Unalienable rights	14a,14b,14d,14f
		2.Freedom of Religion
		3.Freedom of Speech and Press
		4.Freedom of Assembly and Petition
20	Individual Rights	1.Due process of law	14a,14b,14c,14f
		2.Security of the person
		3.Rights of the accused
		4.Punishment
N/A	U.S. Constitution Exam	1.Declaration of Independence	14a,14b,14c,14f
		2.The Document

				3.The Three branches
				4.Amending the Constitution
				5.Lawmaking process
				6.The Articles
				7.The Amendments
N/A	State Constitution Exam			1.State History			14a,14b,14c,14f
				2.Flag codes
				3.Three branches
				4.State officers
				5.State taxation and voting
				6.State geography
er's American Government				McClenaghan. Prentice Hall. 2004
entice Hall 2004												